

Your Guide to Staying at Snow Flower Condominiums

Snow Flower condos offer the best of Park City: immediate access to mountain activities, close proximity to Historic Main Street, and warm and inviting accommodations with a host of amenities. Plus, there are a wealth of activities, restaurants, and more that you can easily explore from your relaxing accommodations.

This handy guide shares must-do activities in Park City as well as everything you want to know about Snow Flower condominiums.

Top Snow-Filled Activities

It's no secret that wintery fun is a major part of Park City. If you are looking for some snow packed activities, you are in luck! From skiing to horse drawn sleighs, we have it all, and more.

Hitting the Slopes

Snow Flower condos are situated at the base of Park City Mountain and offer ski-in/ski-out access. Three Kings, First Time, and Eagle chairlifts are just steps from your front door so that you can hit the slopes on your schedule.

Downhill skiers will love Park City Mountain's fresh powder and epic runs. Ski Butlers and Aloha Ski Rentals have everything you need for ski-filled fun. If gliding through the snow at a leisurely pace is more your speed, many cross-country trails are just minutes from your rental. Didn't pack your equipment? Not to worry. JANS Mountain Recreation Experts provides a variety of equipment rentals, including cross-country skis.

Serene Snowshoeing Trails

Park City is home to a variety of gorgeous trails ideal for a snowshoeing sojourn. East 224 Trail and McLeod Creek Trail are just a little over a mile away via Three Kings Drive and Thaynes Canyon Drive. New to the snowshoeing experience? All Seasons Adventures and White Pine Touring offer exceptional guided tours on some of the best trails.

Horse Drawn Sleighs

During the snowy months, cozy up and explore the mountain on a horse-drawn sleigh. Rocky Mountain Outfitters offers a variety of tours—from a 14-seat ride that can accommodate your whole family, or a romantic excursion for you and your loved one.

The Snowed Inn Sleigh Company offers evening sleigh rides and dinner for an unforgettable experience. So curl under a warm blanket, sip some hot cocoa, and get swept away on a one-of-a-kind tour of Park City's alpine landscape.

Explore Historic Main Street

A Park City vacation wouldn't be complete without a trip to Historic Main Street. Our downtown corridor is known for its wealth of art galleries, restaurants, boutique shops, and museums. Access Main Street from the Snow Flower complex in an easy 10 minutes. Simply hop on Park City's free shuttle to enjoy our Main Street culture and miner-town architecture. The shuttle is conveniently located at Silver King, just a four-minute walk from your front door.

Must Visit Main Street Restaurants

Park City is a foodie destination, and many of our finest establishments are located downtown. Whether you are looking for low-key lunches or extravagant dinners, Main Street has all that and more.

Start your day with an unforgettable brunch at The Bridge Cafe and Grill, where you will enjoy Brazilian-inspired eats and mountain views. For lunch, stop by Café Terigo for classic Italian cuisine and the best patio dining in town. Are you looking for an exceptional dinner? Riverhorse on Main boasts an award-winning menu and a well-curated wine list.

Shop Until You Drop at Unique Boutiques and Galleries

Whether you are looking for a dose of retail therapy or searching for the perfect souvenir, Main Street has something to tickle your fancy.

Want to take home unique wares from Park City artists? You'll find year-round special shopping events like our monthly Gallery Strolls and Park Silly Sunday Market. Feel like indulging in a bit of window shopping? There are dozens of boutique shops lining Main Street to satisfy your shopping desires.

Discover Park City Arts and History

Park City is rich in history—from miner culture to our famous art scene—and downtown is a mecca for art and history-focused activities. The award-winning Park City Museum, located on the heart of Main Street, features three floors of historical and interactive exhibits that show off our town's silver mining background. The famed Egyptian Theatre, also located in historic Old Town, is renowned for its live performances and musical acts.

Soak in Park City Scenery

Park City's landscape is ever-changing. Though we're known for our exciting wintertime activities, there's always something for everyone to enjoy, no matter the season. The mountain offers evergreens, aspens, wildflowers, and more, making it perfect for a day hike or leisurely bicycle ride.

Hiking and Biking Trails

Explore Park City wilderness on foot and get up close to our natural world. The Farm Trail is an easy loop that boasts plenty of photo opportunities and stunning views. Blood's Lake and Lackawaxen Lake Trail also offer majestic scenery and moderate trails.

Jenni's Trail is another terrific option for both hikers and bikers. This five mile trail is a great workout, boasting a 1,300 vertical climb. Jenni's Trail also connects to Spiro Trail, which offers a very smooth ride and gentle grade. Many outdoor enthusiasts use Spiro to access a variety of other trails.

Enjoy the View from Your Rental

Who says you have to leave your condo to experience the great outdoors? Snow Flower condos are nestled amongst the aspens and evergreens, so you can lounge on your couch or private patio and take in nature from your luxury rental. Add a bottle of locally produced wine from Old Town Cellars and organic foods delivered from All Seasons Grocery and throw yourself a little après-ski party from the comfort of your Snow Flower property.
