

PARK CITY FOODIE GUIDE

Looking for the best food, drink, and luxury lodging to make your foodie trip unforgettable?

Take this handy map and explore Park City food and accommodations!

FOOD

Cafe Terigo:

Old world Italian for the whole family in the heart of downtown.

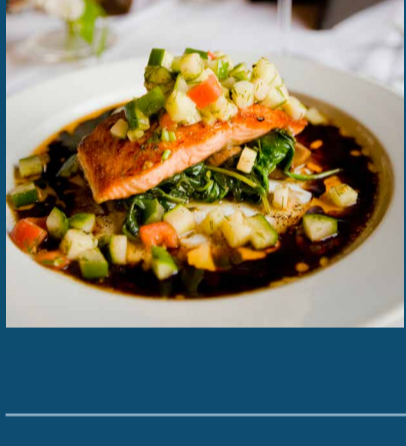

Hearth and Hill:

Local hangout with wide-ranging lunch and dinner menus.

Riverhorse on Main:

Exquisite, contemporary dining at one of Park City's oldest restaurants.

Sammy's Bistro

Hip, casual dining features comfort foods and Southwest favorites; featured on Diners, Drive-Ins, and Dives.

Windy Ridge Bakery:

Grab-and-go bakery featuring pastries, desserts, quiches, and gluten-free items.

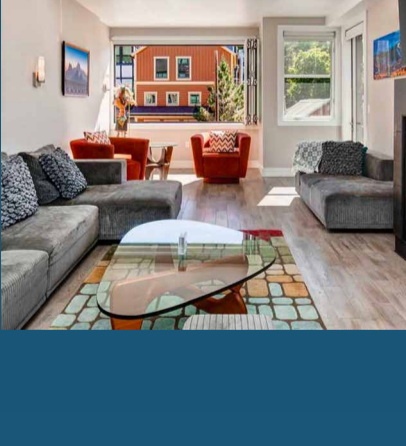

ACTIVITIES

Bill White Farms:

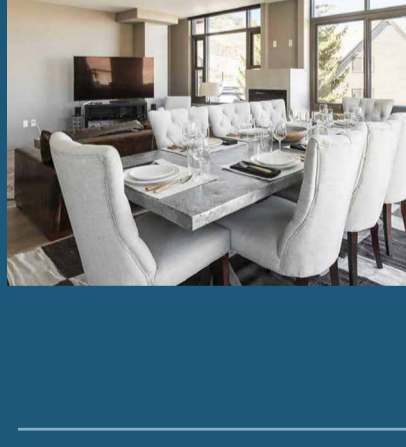

Non-profit farm offering farm-stand eats for pre-order.

LODGING

820 Park Ave 203 & 204:

6-bedroom condo with hot tub and private deck. Sleeps 12.

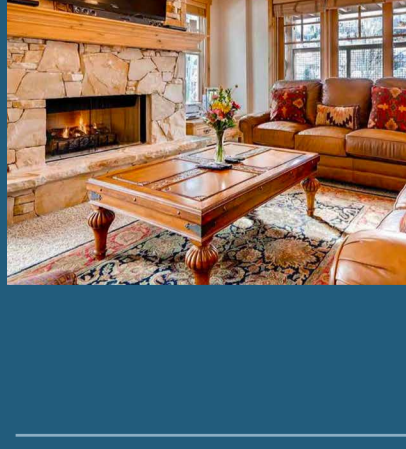

Low301:

3-bedroom condo with gourmet chef's kitchen and stunning views. Sleeps 6.

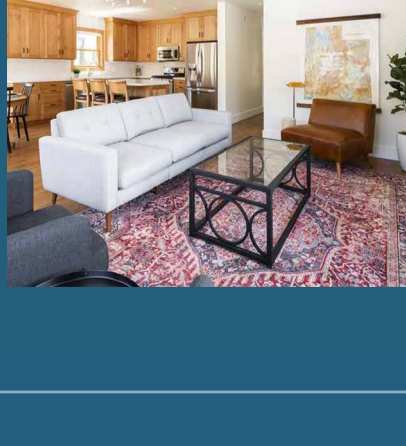

Motherlode A:

4-bedroom condo with deck for dining. Sleeps 10.

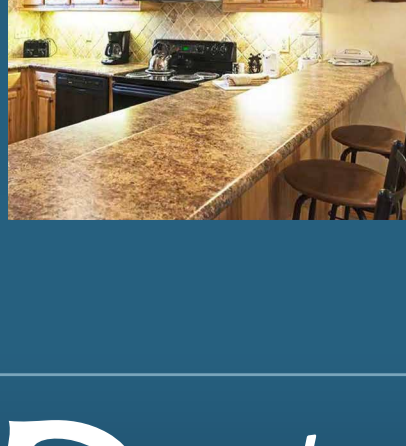

Towne Pointe C201:

3-bedroom condo with gas fireplace and easy access to Main Street. Sleeps 6.

1021 Park:

5-bedroom townhome with downtown location and spacious dining area. Sleeps 12.

Snow Flower 20:

3-bedroom condo with modern, upgraded kitchen. Sleeps 6.

