

Park City's Spring Family Fun Guide

Spring in Park City is an extraordinary time. The sun is shining, the air is crisp, and snow still blankets the mountain so you can get in some end-of-season skiing. And, for families looking to make our quaint town their next vacation destination, you'll find a plethora of things to do in Park City with kids. From outdoor activities to kid-friendly eateries and one-of-a-kind adventures, our charming resort town has it all!

Entertainment for All

Park City offers a wealth of activities for families looking to spend some quality time together this spring. From skiing our world-class slopes to exploring our historic streets, there's something for every family member to enjoy.

Hit the Slopes

Park City boasts world-class slopes with perfect powder and scenic surroundings. The beautiful Deer Valley Resort offers 103 runs and more than 2,000 acres of skiing opportunities. Impressive Park City Mountain provides more than 300 runs and 7,000 skiable acres. Spring is ideal for families to get out in the sun and play in the snow before the winter season comes to an end.

Explore Historic Main Street

The pulse of Park City is our charming downtown area, Main Street. There is an abundance of great family-friendly excursions, like the Mine Trap room at Escape Room Park City, where everyone can work together to escape the historic Silver Mine. You'll also discover an array of shops and galleries lining the streets. For a low-key lunch, stop by Flanagan's on Main and enjoy Irish fare for pickup or dine-in.

Enjoy Peace and Quiet with the Family

One of the most valuable aspects of family vacations is spending meaningful time together. After an activity-filled day, relax and unwind with a mellow family night back at your comfortable rental. Watch a Sundance film in front of the fireplace with pizza delivery from Red Banjo Pizza, or cook dinner together and enjoy the view from your private balcony.

Elevated Cuisine the Whole Family Will Love

Park City is known not only for its slopes but also for its stellar cuisine. Many of our favorite restaurants are kid-friendly and serve up delectable dishes. Explore our diverse epicurean scene with these top establishments.

Hearth and Hill

One of Park City's newest additions to the food scene, Hearth and Hill serves contemporary cuisine everyone in the family will love. From pork gozo to truffle mac and cheese and Ahi tuna poke bowls, the eclectic menu will satisfy even the pickiest of eaters. In addition to socially distanced dine-in options, Heath and Hill offers online ordering for pickup. For breakfast, check out their Sunday brunch.

Twisted Fern

Twisted Fern is a foodie family's dream come true. All their ingredients are fresh, locally sourced, and expertly prepared. Even their children's menu has the same finesse as their regular offerings, so don't be surprised to see seared trout on your child's menu. Their tented patio is perfect for taking in our spring evenings. You can also grab food to dine at home or one of our many parks.

Riverhorse on Main

Treat the family to an exquisite dinner at one of Park City's most beloved restaurants, Riverhorse on Main. Open nightly for dinner only, this establishment is one of North America's premier culinary destinations. Enjoy live music and elevated cuisine, like macadamia nut crusted halibut and buffalo short ribs. Kids will love their decadent desserts, like s'mores crème brûlée and chocolate covered brownie.

High-Energy Family Activities in Park City for Adventure Seekers

There is no shortage of thrilling adventures for all ages in Park City. Explore our Olympic history, cruise the mountain terrain, or expel some energy at amusing game centers. No matter what you choose, the whole group will have a blast being together.

Utah Olympic Park

Embrace your inner-Olympian with a day of adventure at Utah Olympic Park. Watch professional athletes train and compete, wander educational zones, like the 2002 Winter Olympic Museum, or get a thrill of a lifetime with the Bobsled Experience. Plus, there are some stunning hiking trails nearby, so grab some goodies from Freshie's Lobster before heading out, and have lobster lunch in the crisp spring air.

Woodward Park City

Does your family love staying active and trying new hobbies? Then Woodward Park City is the place for you. This enormous action sports hub has everything, from tubing adventures to parkour zones, indoor biking, and more! Are you hoping to add some skiing to the mix? You can do that at Woodward, too! For a sports-themed dinner to refuel, head to Billy Blanco's for burgers, tacos, and motorcycle decor in an old-school garage.

Daniel's Summit

For a completely remarkable experience, tour our mountain landscapes via snowmobile. Daniel's Summit offers the best high-energy snowmobile escapades in Park City. Cruise the terrain guided by their experts, or trek through the summit on a self-guided trip. Peak season runs from December to April, so book your reservation early and enjoy some spring-time fun in the snow.

Alpine Adventures for the Whole Family

While skiing is one of the most popular family-friendly activities in Park City, there is still more fun to be had on the mountain before the snow is all gone! Check out these additional spring ventures for the whole crew.

Fat Biking Through Spring Snow:

Experience the mountain with a fun fat biking excursion with White Pine Touring. Don't forget to check out their other tours like snowshoeing and cross country skiing.

Relaxing Sleigh Rides:

Wind down by winding your way through pristine countryside, snowy trails, and views of Herber Valley. Rocky Mountain Outfitters offers private horse-drawn rides for any sized family group.

Experience Après-Ski Culture:

After a day on the slopes, enjoy some post-snow fun with snacks and beverages. For a genuinely unique après-ski affair, head to The Bridge Cafe and Grill for ski-in/ski-out access and Brazilian cuisine.

Go On a Dog Sledding Expedition:

Spend an afternoon with playful pups, gliding through snow-capped scenery. All Season's Adventures provides dog sledding tours with professional mushers, as well as other spring-time excursions.
