

Top 8 Can't-Miss Park City Events

Looking for unique things to do in Park City, Utah this September and October? This handy checklist has the top activities this fall to enjoy near your premier vacation rental!

3 Recurring September and October Events:

1. Park Silly Sunday Market:

Every Sunday, enjoy local crafts, fresh food from local farms, live music, and more at this lively eco-friendly market in the heart of downtown.

Every Sunday until September 26, 2021

2. Shop, Dine, and Stroll—Car Free Main St.:

Main St. goes pedestrian-only every Sunday in September. Shop top boutiques, enjoy world-class cuisine, and meander on foot without worrying about cars.

Every Sunday until September 26, 2021

3. Mountain Town Music:

Take in a free show with top musicians all over Park City.

Check calendar for events and dates

5 Special Events Happening in September and October:

Don't miss these special events! They only come around once a year and are part of what makes Park City a great place to visit.

1. Miner's Day:

Every Labor Day, Parkites celebrate Miner's Day with a wide range of activities, like Running of the Balls, Bark City 5K, and more!

September 6, 2021

2. Park City Song Summit:

Groove along to some of the top singer-songwriters performing at venues across Park City.

September 8-12, 2021

3. Autumn Aloft Hot Air Balloon Festival:

Watch colorful hot-air balloons take flight and soar through our mountain skies.

September 18-19, 2021

4. Shot Ski:

Help us break records by enjoying a shot of High West's expertly crafted spirits off of a ski.

October 9, 2021

5. Halloween:

Get spooky Park City style with Halloween on Main St. Expect trick or treating downtown, haunted wagon rides, and even an adorable dog parade.

October 31, 2021