

Your Complete Guide to a Girls Weekend Getaway in Park City

There's nothing quite like getting together with your girlfriends for a much-needed ladies weekend. What makes Park City so great for a getaway with your besties? Everything! From spa treatments to exceptional eateries to outdoor adventures and luxury accommodations, our town has something for everyone wanting to spend some quality time with the gals.

Pamper Yourself Park City-Style

The first step to an exceptional girls weekend is indulging in a spa day. If you want to pamper yourself in style, check out these top relaxation spots.

Align Spa

Park City's oldest day spa, Align, offers everything from detoxifying facials, deep tissue massages, Moroccan hair oil treatments, and whole-body firming wraps. Located just a few minutes from bustling Main Street, you can enjoy the morning with a stroll downtown, then whisk the ladies off to an afternoon of rejuvenation.

Massage Express

Bring the spa to your luxury rental by booking a private treatment from some of the best massage professionals in Park City. Start the day with some pastries from Windy Ridge Bakery, soothe tired muscles with a relaxing dip in your vacation rental hot tub, then get all the ladies together for an unforgettable at-home spa day. Looking for the perfect rental to maximize spa time? Edelweiss Haus boasts a hot tub, sauna, and heated pool.

PC Yoga Collective

Breathe in good vibes and exhale tension with hot yoga from PC Yoga Collective. At Park City's premier yoga studio, you'll encounter everything from Hot Power yoga, classes devoted to strengthening and sculpting muscles, hypnosis counseling, shamanic healing, and more! PC Yoga also carries a line of cute clothes and accessories so you can look great while you get your sweat on.

Shop 'Til You Drop

If your idea of a perfect ladies weekend involves a shopping spree, Park City has you covered. With so many galleries, boutiques, and outdoor markets, you and your besties can find one-of-a-kind keepsakes to show off at home.

Red Flower Studios

This hand-blown glass art studio is not to be missed. Their gallery sells dramatic pieces that lend a sense of flair to any home. From modern wine decanters to statement lighting and keepsake ornaments, Red Flower boasts some of the most unique glass items for interior decor. Want to learn some glass blowing basics? Sign all the women up for educational classes and take home your own masterpiece!

Main Street

A shopping trip would not be complete without a day exploring our historic downtown corridor, Main Street. Expect quaint miner's town charm coupled with high-end boutiques and galleries galore. On Sundays, our bustling street closes its main drag to cars, allowing for locals and visitors alike to leisurely wander every inch of downtown. Need a little afternoon nosh to chat about the best finds of the day? Cafe Terigo serves up classic Italian fare and an impressive patio.

Bill White Farms

For a food-focused shopping adventure, get out in nature and visit Bill White Farms. Tour the sprawling facility that features 50 apple trees, six greenhouses, herb gardens, and more. After enjoying the farm, head over to the stand to grab fresh eggs, produce, bloody mary mix, and ready-to-heat meals from some of Bill White's most loved restaurants. Then enjoy your treats back on your Park City condo.

Check Out the Eclectic Food Scene

We all know that calories don't count on vacation, so spend your time eating through some world-class cuisine and lively hot spots in Park City. There is plenty to love about our foodie scene, from delightful cafes to contemporary brunch and late-night hangouts.

Morning Pick Me Ups

If you are staying close to Main Street, start your day with a cup of strong coffee and sweet pastries from Atticus. This quaint coffee shop also boasts a selection of new and used books, knick-knacks, and sundry items. For an opulent sit-down breakfast complete with healthy smoothies, Harvest will help everyone recharge and nourish their bodies.

Cocktails and Small Bites

Getting together with the ladies wouldn't be complete without some vino. Old Town Cellars pours exquisite reds, whites, and rosés in their charming downtown tasting room. Their cheese board featuring Gold Creek Farms dairy is perfect for sharing. For some world cuisine, enjoy Brazilian eats and Caipirinhas on a sprawling patio at The Bridge Cafe and Grill. Don't feel like leaving your luxury condo? Bartender Box will deliver quality mixers to you for a girls-only happy hour.

Night Out on the Town

Get dressed up and dine at one of Park City's oldest restaurants, Riverhorse on Main. This downtown establishment is Utah's first recipient of the distinguished DiRōNA Award and has received Forbes prestigious Four Star Award for 17 years in a row. After dinner, let your hair down and head to No Name Saloon for nightcaps. This 21-and-older-only bar offers a rooftop patio, specialty cocktails, and kitschy vibes.
