

Guide to Date Night Restaurants in Park City

No matter what brings you to our mountain town—a family vacation, a couple’s retreat, an outdoor excursion—there are plenty of ways to have a date night in Park City. Our restaurants boast inspired cuisine and plenty of romance to suit all kinds of moods and palates. If you’re looking for the top date night eateries to woo your loved one, we have all that and more!

Hip Park City Restaurants for an Intimate Fine Dining Experience

If trendy eats prepared with expertise are your go-to for dinner, then these delectable restaurants are for you. From Old World Italian cuisine to seasonal menus, these Park City establishments deliver ambiance and next-level service.

Grappa Restaurant

Rustic Italian cuisine is always romantic, and nobody does it better than Grappa. Situated at the top of Main Street, this popular eatery boasts exceptional views of downtown. Inside you'll find classic Tuscan-esque touches like terrazzo tile, wooden beams, and a delightful grapevine motif. During warm weather, their expansive patio opens up so you can gaze at the night sky while sipping on Chianti. While their ambiance is perfect for a couple's date night, their menu is definitely the star of the show. For a luxurious meal, start with their heirloom tomato bruschetta. Then top things off with Osso Bucco and the lobster Fregola Sarda.

If you are up on the food scene in Park City, then you've likely heard about tupelo. tupelo has received the Wine Spectator Award for Excellence every year from 2016-2021. And it's no surprise why. This global cuisine-focused restaurant is known for innovative flavors made with the best local ingredients. Chef Matt Harris' culinary philosophy is to create globally inspired menu dishes that "honor artisanal ingredients and food terroir." What this means for guests is a rotating menu that features the best flavors of the season.

Twisted Fern

While Twisted Fern's vibe is casual, its menu is sophisticated, and its bistro ambiance is beyond inviting, making it ideal for a vacation date night. Chef and owner Adam Ross creates daring yet accessible menus inspired by the seasons. No matter what meals you might encounter on your dining outing, you can rest assured that each ingredient is sourced locally, and everything is made in-house to perfection.

Takeaway Cuisine for a Romantic Dinner at Home

Who says date night needs to take place outside of your luxury rental? Cozy up with your loved one and have an unforgettable dinner in the privacy of your own Park City vacation property. These restaurants are just as good for takeaway as they are for dine-in.

Chimayo

A visit to Park City wouldn't be complete without some Southwest-inspired eats. Chimayo takes Utah cuisine to the next level, and you can take their epicurean eats home with you! Their online ordering menu features their entire array, so you can try all the best dishes. Order their chile relleno, guacamole Azteca, and Arturo's tortilla soup for the first course. The duck enchilada and trout fajitas are not to be missed for entrees.

Windy Ridge

Turn date night into a cozy evening with some of the best comfort food in Park City. Windy Ridge offers excellent dinner packages that come with freshly baked bread, salad, and your choice of entree and side. Each box serves four, so you'll have plenty of leftovers for lunch the next day. If you're looking to try their signature dishes, like meatloaf, chicken and biscuits, and ranch steak, you can also order their full menu online.

Blind Dog Restaurant and Raw Bar

There is no denying that Blind Dog Restaurant is one of the top raw bar destinations in Park City. Their sushi is always fresh and expertly executed, and their oyster selection spans coasts, ensuring the best bivalves make it to your plate. However, one of the Blind Dogs' best-kept secrets is their takeout menu. You can still get some of their raw heavy-hitters, like sushi rolls and crudo, but you can also order some insanely good steaks featuring beef from Snake River farms.

Creative Date Night Add-Ons

Pair your perfect date night with some Park City activities to get you in the mood for dinner. Take in the sights and sounds of our bustling downtown, immerse yourself in our art and film scene, and enjoy our landscapes.

Main Street Stroll

Whether you're dining at one of our downtown establishments or looking for a fun pre-dinner activity, a walk through historic Main Street is a must. Our quaint architecture, the wealth of galleries and shops, and extraordinary mountain views are all on display. You'll also find special events year-round, like our monthly Gallery Strolls, Park Silly Sunday Market, and more!

Art-Focused Adventure

Park City is home to some spectacular arts, crafts, and film. Birthplace of the famous Sundance Film Festival, we are no strangers to incredible cinema and performing arts. Catch a live show at the famed Egyptian Theatre, watch an art flick at Park City Film, or snuggle up at the drive-in. Want to get your hands dirty? Craft glass-blown masterpieces at Red Flower Studios, or sign up for a class at Kimball Art Center.

Experiencing the Great Outdoors

No matter the weather, Park City has outdoor adventures for anyone wanting to slow down and explore nature. All Seasons Adventures offers all-level hiking trail tours. You can also choose your own paths that wind from the mountain to more urban trails. If you want to soak in some therapeutic waters, then spend a day relaxing in some of our natural hot springs.
