SEARCHING FOR SPOTTSWOODE

Established in 1882, Spottswode Estate is distinguished by the pre-Prohibition Victorian home depicted on their wine label. Spottswode was christened by Mrs. Albert Spotts in 1910 and later acquired by Mary and Jack Novak in 1972. Mary released Spottswode's first Cabernet Sauvignon in 1982, exactly 100 years after the estate's founding.

"Medium-bodied, elegant, and tightly wound, the palate shimmers with so much energy, featuring layer upon layer of floral, savory and crunchy black fruit notes, finishing long and minerally. This is a remarkably poised, seemingly effortless beauty that cannot fail to make your jaw drop." ~Lisa Perrotti-Brown

SASSY SUPER TUSCAN SASSICAIA

What is a Super Tuscan? These wines are produced in Italy's Tuscany region using a blend of Bordeaux grape varieties with some Sangiovese. Sassicaia was officially the first Super Tuscan. Its story began in the 1940s when Mario Incisa della Rocchetta planted Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc vines on his estate in Bolgheri to test how the local, maritime Tuscan terroir would respond to classic Bordeaux varieties.

THIS LOT INCLUDES:

 Three (3) bottles of 2018 Tenuta San Guido Bolgheri Sassicaia (RP 97+, WS 96)

DONATED BY: Supporters of Destin Charity Wine Auction Foundation

LOT 212

L'AVENTURE CÔTE À CÔTE

The spirit of L'Aventure is most evident in Stephan Asseo's "Paso Blends." In these, the blending of premium varietals increases the authenticity, complexity, and balance of the wines. In this adventurous spirit, they have found the future of Paso Robles wines... great, balanced red blends.

The Côte à Côte blend is made up of predominately Grenache, as well as Mourvèdre and Syrah and entirely estate-grown fruit from L'Aventure Vineyard. The hilly soils are intriguingly complex due to their proximity to the ocean in western Paso Robles. The soils have a top layer of calcareous shale, filled with old marine bones, shells, diatoms, and plankton, with clay, metals, and quartz below. The wine is aged in 30% new French oak, 28% one-year-old French oak, 33% concrete tank, and 9% amphora for 14 months with no fining or filtration.

THIS LOT INCLUDES:

👉 Six (6) bottles of 2018 L'Aventure Côte à Côte Red Wine (RP 94)

RADIO-COTEAU

Radio-Coteau is deservedly a true cult winery. A “cult” wine being one produced in very small quantities by a very skilled and experienced winegrower and winemaker, sold and tightly allocated through a mailing list, distinguished by exceptional wines, and known only to the most dedicated wine geeks.

Eric Sussman, born and raised in New York State, developed his passion for winegrowing while studying agriculture at Cornell University. After spending several years in Washington’s Yakima Valley, he immersed himself in France’s old-world culture and traditions over two exceptional vintages, working at Baron Philippe de Rothschild of Pauillac and Domaine Comte Armand and Domaine Jacques Prieur in Burgundy. Apprenticing alongside men and women who have tended the same vineyards and wines through countless seasons reinforced Eric’s respect for the intrinsic connection between land, people, and the wine they produce.

Upon returning to the United States, and after a year of collaborating on the wines at Bonny Doon in Santa Cruz, Eric settled in western Sonoma County and spent four years as the associate winemaker for Dehlinger. Working with one of the area’s finest estate producers enhanced his appreciation for the world-class wine grown in this region.

FATTORIA DEI BARBI BRUNELLO

The Cinelli Colombini family has blended tradition and innovation for over seven centuries. The first Brunello imported in the USA, Fattoria dei Barbi is a historic estate that continues to be a pioneer in Tuscan wines.

This Brunello is an extremely polished and precise expression that hits all the right notes for those seeking a classic expression of Sangiovese. In appearance, the wine shows a bright ruby hue with brilliant garnet reflections. The bouquet is tempered and shy at first, but it opens quickly to reveal those characteristic aromas of wild berry, candied cherry, licorice, and pressed blue flowers that are so beautifully tied to this mighty Tuscan grape.

Rich, powerful and yet massively tannic, the 2013 possesses a stunning combination of super-ripe fruit, bright acids, and plenty of supporting structure. ON HIS FARM

Jay McDonald named his wine company EIEIO back in 1998, but make no mistake, his wines are not the stuff of children's nursery rhymes, and he's not that old either. He's just a funny guy that makes seriously delicious wine.

This 2016 Maverick Vineyard Pinot Noir shows aromatics of lavender over crushed warm blackberries, tar and caramelized black plums, and freshly ground black pepper over a baked cherry clafoutis. Entry is exciting, bright and intense, like eating a blood orange for the first time. Notes of ripe stone fruits from nectarine and peach to black plum are present along with flavors of Graham crackers, boysenberry, blackberries, and fig compote. The finish is super long, showing both stone and cane fruits, ripe Bing cherries, and freshly cracked black peppercorns.

THIS LOT INCLUDES:

 Six (6) bottles of 2016 EIEIO Maverick Vineyard Pinot Noir (RP 92)

QUELLE CHANCE(UX)?!

There is probably no other wine grape variety that better reflects the place from which it comes than Cabernet Sauvignon. Soil, geographic orientation, and climate all contribute to a vineyard's "terroir," and the Cabernet Sauvignon grape provides the perfect structure upon which these distinct characteristics can emerge. The geographical location and terrain of Coombsville has unique microclimates which provide a long growing season, where grapes develop a superb range of flavors with extended hang time. The Cabernets from this area tend to lean more toward Bordeaux-style wines than the rest of the valley. Le Chanceux is family-owned and operated with a small production of approximately 200 cases annually. Every vintage is unique and carefully nurtured on the vines until optimum quality is reached. Their small batches are hand crafted with minimal intervention and maximum attention and are aged in French oak barrels.

THIS LOT INCLUDES:

-  Five (5) bottles of 2012 Le Chanceux Belles Filles Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon

DONATED BY: Supporters of Destin Charity Wine Auction Foundation

LOT 246

TOR MELANSON

The TOR winemaking team has been together since the beginning. The vineyard is what they showcase, not a heavy winemaker's hand. Each wine is nurtured to bottle unfiltered and unfined. They are focused on single-vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon and Chardonnay wines, cuvées, and Bordeaux varietals, and each wine is handmade and bottled in a very small quantity.

Melanson's dark fruits saturate the palate, a hallmark of outstanding Pritchard Hill Cabernets. There is a profound nose of black fruits, figs, and exotic spices, and its medium to full-bodied palate offers a myriad of floral and earth sparks with seamless, firm, very fine-grained tannins. Well-knit freshness brings forth layer after layer of delicate nuances on the very long, mineral-laced finish.

👉 Three (3) bottles of 2017 TOR Melanson Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon

FULLDRAW DRIFT

Fulldraw began in 2012 when Connor McMahon jumped on the opportunity to acquire a 100-acre vineyard site in the Templeton Gap of western Paso Robles. With six years of winemaking and farming experience at adjacent property, Booker Vineyard, Connor understood that with its limestone soils and cooling maritime influences, this was a place where the Rhône varieties he loved would thrive. For the 'Drift' bottling, the Clairette Blanche and Grenache Blanc were picked to preserve and complement the great structure, acidity, and freshness retained from the vines and limestone soil on the vineyard. A sumptuous palate is complemented with creamy fruits and beautiful aromatics. Fermentation in new oak adds a lush mouthfeel without being too viscous.

SAVORING SAXUM

Saxum Vineyards is focused on producing Grenache, Syrah, and Mataro based blends from the Willow Creek District of Paso Robles. They respect the land and farm everything sustainably without chemical fertilizers, herbicides, or pesticides.

VERY VALDICAVA

"The 2010 Brunello di Montalcino is one of the very best wines I have tasted here in recent years. Dark red cherries, mint, game, smoke, tobacco, and licorice are all deeply expressive in a mid-weight, very classic feeling Brunello long on class and personality. Big yet silky tannins frame the dramatic, intense finish. The Valdicava wines are always big, but the 2010 is a bit pulled back and striking." ~Vinous

FRENCH CONNECTION

Clos Solène is a family-owned winery on the westside of Paso Robles in the heart of the Willow Creek District. Clos Solène thrives on team effort. Guillaume Fabre and assistant winemaker, Aurelien Crouzet, focus on the vineyards and the wines, while Solène Fabre and Roxanne Malkie run operations. Together as a team, Clos Solène is no longer pouring out of their kitchen, but in a quaint tasting room nestled in the vines of the 28-acre estate.

Guillaume made Fleur de Solène for his wife and his muse, Solène. One of her wishes for their portfolio is to feature a wine that tastes great from the moment it is bottled and could age potentially for a decade. It greets you smoothly, with silky, chalky tannins and an elegant mineral finish, promising to age nicely.

Harmonie was created as an ode to Guillaume's French heritage and Old World roots. The harmonious Châteauneuf-du-Pape blend envelops the aromas of Grenache with very elegant tannins on the mid-palate that will help this wine age for a decade or more. This wine is 100% sourced from Willow Creek AVA.

Recently, she was elected to be on the General Advisory Planning Committee (GPAC) 2040, a special committee of 15 members that advises the Mayor and City Council of Napa on strategic initiatives for the next 20 years of Napa's growth.
